These prompts turn your rough notes into documents that win jobs and contracts. Golden rule: paste the real job advert or tender into the prompt whenever you have it - the AI tailors everything to the actual requirements.

CVs (1-8)

- 1 Here is my work history: [paste rough notes]. Turn it into a clean, modern CV structure with strong bullet points.
- 2 Rewrite these CV bullets so each starts with an action verb and shows a result: [paste]
- 3 Tailor my CV to this job advert. Highlight what matches, flag what's missing: [paste CV and advert]
- 4 Write a professional summary (3 lines max) for a [role] with [x] years' experience in [field].
- 5 I have a gap in my CV from [dates] because [reason]. How do I present it honestly and well?
- 6 Review my CV like a recruiter with 30 seconds: what do you see, what do you miss? [paste CV]
- 7 Convert my CV into a plain-text version that survives online application forms: [paste CV]
- 8 I'm changing careers from [old field] to [new field]. Rewrite my experience to show transferable skills: [paste CV]

Cover letters (9-15)

- 1 Write a cover letter for this advert using my CV. One page, no clichés, specific to them: [paste both]
- 2 Rewrite this cover letter to sound confident instead of desperate: [paste]
- 3 Write an opening paragraph that doesn't start with 'I am writing to apply for...' - advert: [paste]
- 4 Draft a speculative letter to [company] where no job is advertised. What I offer: [describe]

- 5 Shorten this cover letter to 150 words without losing the substance: [paste]
- 6 The advert asks for [requirement] which I only partly have. Write the paragraph that handles this honestly.
- 7 Write a follow-up email two weeks after applying, polite and short.

Proposals & business plans (16-23)

- 1 Draft a one-page business proposal for [client] offering [service]. Their problem: [describe].
- 2 Structure a business plan for [business idea]: give me every section with 2 guiding questions each.
- 3 Write the executive summary of my business plan from these notes: [paste]
- 4 Turn this quote request into a professional quotation document: [paste details, prices]
- 5 Review my proposal from the client's side: what would make them hesitate? [paste]
- 6 Write the 'why choose us' section for [business] without empty boasting. Our real strengths: [list]
- 7 Draft payment terms for a [service] project that protect me but stay client-friendly.
- 8 Summarise my full proposal into a 5-slide pitch outline: [paste proposal]

Interview preparation (24-30)

- 1 I'm interviewing for [role] at [company]. Ask me the 8 most likely questions, one at a time, and coach me on each answer.
- 2 Turn this experience into a STAR story (Situation, Task, Action, Result): [describe]
- 3 What should I ask them? Give me 6 questions that show judgment, for a [role] interview.

4 Help me answer 'what's your salary expectation' for [role] in [location]. My range: [range].

5 My weakness is [weakness]. Help me discuss it honestly without sinking myself.

6 Run a mock interview for [role]. Ask one question, wait for my answer, give feedback, then continue.

7 Draft a thank-you email to send after my interview for [role], mentioning [something discussed].
